Class History

Way back in '41 we started to school and for our teacher we had Mrs. Arnette Bryan. Many times she somforted us when we were broken hearted or were hurt by some careless student. She was just like a mother to us. There were 44 of us then.

In the second grade Miss Margaret Stephenson was our teacher. She is now Mrs. Ward, living in Smithfield. Jackie Stephenson entered that year.

We really did enjoy the third grade. Mrs. Nelda Cotton was our instructor that year. Around Christmas time we were joined by Cinda Lou Parker.

In the fourth grade we were separted. Mrs. Nelda Cotton taught part of us in a combination third and fourth, while Miss Poston, now Mrs. Worth Pounds, taught the rest of us. That year we thought school was really getting hard because we were taking geography.

Miss Johnson from Raleigh was our teacher in the fifth grade. We still had geography that year and history. I remember quite well when we had to learn all the states and their capitols. The only one we could remember was Raleigh because we were more acquainted with our own state of North Carolina.

In the sixth grade a new teacher came to our school. She was Mrs. Gene Parker from Smithfield. That year we sold candy and paper to make money so we could have a soft ball and bat all our own.

Then we were in the seventh grade. Our instructor was Mrs. J. T. Uzzle. That year we gave a Thanksgiving Play, and it really was a great success. Lavee Stuckey and Carl McCabe joined us that year.

Now at last, we had reached our final year of grammar school. Mrs. Carl K. Parrish was our teacher that year. We all grew to love and adore her. That year we had a class day exercise in the auditorium. We really felt grown up then because it was carried out just like a Senior Class Day Exercise. We had a wonderful time making scrap books in our North Carolina History.

Finally we were in high school. We really had hard time getting use to our new subjects and having three teachers. Mrs. Perkinson was our home room teacher that year. It was quite a task to add and multiply those a's, x's, etc., but with the patience of our math instructor, Mr. Uzzle, we finally reached the 10th grade. Typing was added to our high school curriculum that year.

Now Mr. Uzzle was our home room teacher. We had four teachers. Mrs. Perkinson left, but Mr. Milton Clark came to take her place. We took five subjects in the tenth. Dot joined us that year.

Again this year Mrs. Carl K. Parrish was our home room teacher. We were "Jolly Juniors," and I mean jolly. We entered into many activities as Juniors. We sponsored the Sauline Players, Halloween Carnival, gave our Junior Play, "Young and Lively," took a nice trip to Washington, sold magazines, and gave an banquet. That was quite a busy year for us.

At last we are Seniors! We are under the direction of Mrs. J. T. Uzzle. This year we have sold ads for our annual, given our play, and have published the fifth edition of "Treasured Memories," attended a beautiful banquet in our honor, and are now at graduation.

Senior Class Prophecy

It is the year 1965. As I sat in my living room watching my favorite television show, the doorbell rang. I opened the door and who should stand there but one of my old classmates that I had not seen in ten years. Although older, he was the same WINFIELD GOWER. It seemed he was now an antique dealer and had come by to see an old chest that I have had for a number of years. Being hungry for news of everyone, I asked him to stay for a cup of tea. I was dying of curiosity.

After getting settled, I asked him about LAVEE STUCKEY. It seemed she was still running that motor court her father owned and between that and her husband, she is doing a splendid job. Winfield didn't know much about CINDA LOU PARKER. Only that she moved away right after graduation. He seemed to think she was a private secretary for an executive in New York. Then curiosity did get the best of me because I just had to know what had happened to VIRGINIA POUNDS. It appeared that she and Duke owned a dry cleaning plant in Durham. Between that, her husband, and their three boys, Virginia has her hands full. As for DOROTHY BROWN, she is a model for Maynard Modeling Company, and doing very well at it I have no doubt. OSIE BYRD, now Mrs. Wood is living in W. M. spending her time taking care of Sherwood and their five children. I asked about JESSE RAY STEVENS. I was told that he has a ranch out in the middle west raising and training race horses. Where is CARL McCABE? He is living out in California on a fruit farm and boy is he making dough! TED BOYETTE is in the Navy and still not married. It looks like he just can't make up his mind. MELVIN BARNES is now a big contractor. He built Winfield's house. Poor fellow! What about MELBA BLINSON? It seems Melba is teaching school in Virginia and doing very well at it I have no doubt. MELVIN GARNER and HAROLD JOHNSON are coaches at State College. Melvin coaches baseball while Harold is the proud coach of the Wolfpack. EDNA COLE is now happily married to Bobby, and living near Fort Jackson, where her handsome husband is stationed. JACKIE STEPHENSON is in the Marines. I was very much surprised to hear that he had never married. Poor fellow! What about me? Well, can't you guess?

Winfield left soon after our talk, and what do you know? He bought that old chest!

PROPHETESS, PATTY LANGDON

"SAILING"

Another sea that we must cross
Another life that we must live
Another work that we must do
And our best that we must give.

A dangerous tide, yet a sturdy boat
Whose Wheel we must guide
An endless voyage that we must make
And bear with joy and pride

A steady wind, with open sails
And a job that we must do
A responsibility on board this ship
To carry our duties through

An open sea that we must face
And a distant shore that we must find
A doubt, yet hope, to sail across
As we leave this shore behind

Our hand on the wheel, a steady grasp
Head high, pride in our chest
Eyes alert, strained o'er the horizon
As we sail this sea of success

Jackie Stephenson (Poet)

"SO LONG HIGH SCHOOL"

Time is slowly passing, our time is almost here,
We all have had good times, throughout all the year.
Now that school life is over, another field we must find.
We have stuck together, through hardships and times,
Sad that we are leaving, but we must say to you,
Goodbye, everybody, so long.

Graduation is waiting,
Why should everyone cry?
This we've all been waiting,
So why should we care?
This is our longest moment,
Our cares and fears we share.
Goodbye, everybody, so long.

Now we say goodbye to, all of our friends,
We can forget our troubles, and also our sins.
Let's leave all our joys, so others can be friends.
Forgive us, but don't forget us, although we may be wrong.
Goodbye, everybody, so long.

Harold Johnson (Song Writer)

Glee Club

The Glee Club was organized and is directed by the pianist, Mrs. Nelson Wilson, for the purpose of performing on special occasions and at commencement. Their first appearance of the year was on November 14. at the Senior Play. We appreciate her working with our voices. We wish we had time to do more of this.

The Youth Club

The Youth Club is becoming very popular and many attend each meeting, which is every other Monday night at the Community Building. The president calls the meeting to order, and the business is taken care of, then they play games, dance, and are served refreshments by the Home Maker's Club or themselves. This group has undertaken many worthwhile projects—such as aiding in the purchasing of Girl's Warm-up Pants and contributing generously to the March of Dimes. The Youth of Wilson's Mills School District is learning to have real community spirit! Mrs. John A. Wilson, Mrs. Byron Parrish, Mrs. George Mitchiner, and Miss Meta Barnes Uzzle graciously give of their time to lead these Youth Meetings. We appreciate their efforts.

At last I can say with great pleasure that now we have finished our yearbook! As associate editor, I wish to express my sincere appreciation to our class sponsor, Mrs. J. T. Uzzle, for her help and guidance, the sponsors of the ads for their wonderful support in our ad sale, and my classmates who have worked hard and spent a lot of valuable time trying to make our annual, the fifth edition of TREASURED MEMORIES, a great success.

Although it was hard work, we enjoyed working on our annual. We sincerely hope you will like the way we have composed this edition. Our desire was to edit an annual you would like. Did we?
